

Three New Leaders Join the Board of Directors

Dear Friend,

We are excited to announce that Alan Airth, Jill Bough, and Wes Matelich have joined American Prairie Reserve's National Board of Directors. Alan, Jill, and Wes are terrific additions and each will bring diverse perspectives, talents, and experience to our board.

Alan Airth is a member of the Board of Directors at Mars, Incorporated. Prior to joining the Mars board in 2016, Alan was a commercial real estate executive with a variety of national firms and an advisor to Bank of America and Wells Fargo Bank during the 2008 to 2012 great recession. In addition to American Prairie board leadership, Alan is a board director for the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Foundation, the Orange County Council, and Boy Scouts of America.

Jill Bough has been an integral part of building the growing community of Big Sky, Montana. She and her husband, Loren, were the founders of the local public high school, which boasts numerous awards and an International Baccalaureate curriculum. Jill is a dynamic photographer with a skill for journalistic storytelling and her work has been exhibited in New York, Cambridge, Minneapolis, and Moscow, Russia. Having grown up in Montana, Jill is passionately in love with the grasslands and prairie. She and Loren own several ranches and split their time between the mountains of Big Sky and the prairies of Central Montana.

Wes Matelich is the Chief Executive Officer of Rx Green Technologies in Denver, Colorado. Previously, Wes worked as an investment banker at J.P. Morgan and Tincum Incorporated. He has been instrumental in developing and championing American Prairie's Young Professionals Leadership Network during its first five years and we are excited to welcome him to the board as we expand this network and opportunities for the next generation of American Prairie leaders. Wes spends extensive time in Montana as an avid hunter and fisherman, and believes strongly in the preservation of America's great outdoors.

On behalf of the American Prairie Reserve Board of Directors and staff, I happily welcome Alan Airth, Jill Bough, and Wes Matelich, and look forward to partnering with them.

Sincerely,

Alison Fox, CEO
American Prairie Reserve
